

Ron knows Estimating

Expert Skillset

Ron Svarc is a construction professional with over 45 years of experience as a licensed general contractor, cost estimator, standard of care expert, and construction manager. Ron's professional career began in the NFL playing for the Los Angeles Rams, the Washington Redskins, the San Diego Chargers, and the New York Jets. After that, Ron started his expansive career in construction, moving on to construction management, cost estimating, consulting, and serving as an expert witness.

DEPTH AND BREADTH

Ron earned his MBA from the University of Phoenix and also holds a Bachelor's of Science, Mathematics, and Physics. He is a licensed general contractor in both California and Arizona, and is a member of many esteemed groups including: the American Association of Cost Engineers, the Certified Estimators Round Table, the Forensic Expert Witness Association, and the American Society of Professional Estimators, who awarded him estimator of the year in 2009. He was a key contributor to Standard Estimating Practice 10th edition, published by the American Society of Professional Estimators. Ron's wide and deep experience includes multi-use facilities, schools, hospitals, theme park facilities, and residential projects.

UNMATCHED UNDERSTANDING

Ron serves as a technical expert, examining enormous volumes of project documentation, estimating project costs, tendering projects for bid, and rendering professional opinions that aid in moving projects to conclusion. As an expert witness Ron is experienced in composing declarations, as well as offering deposition and trial testimony. His clients include property owners and managers, government organizations, developers, contractors, lawyers, insurers, and design professionals.
